Andrew and Angela Willis
SAIT
Norton Bridge
3 December 2011

Dear Family and Friends,

The last 2 weeks brought its joys and frustrations. Andrew has enjoyed his new teaching programme at Theological College Lanka teaching sermon preparation.

Angela had 2 teaching sessions with the nurses in Hatton (25th Nov and 1st Dec). They were very happy to have her back. She's still trying to meet with Dr Ravi who coordinates the training but he is proving elusive... and then he phoned yesterday while we were on the bus to Colombo to see when we could meet!

The frustrations were that both our pen drives stopped working and the main laptop crashed. The laptop has been repaired and we already had 2 new pen drives. Unfortunately Angela had to re-do several hours of preparation work that she needed from the laptop before it can be returned to us.

We are in Colombo again ready to travel to Batticaloa tonight (Sat 3 Dec) on the night train. On Sunday Andrew is preaching at a student's church in a very poor area and this will be followed by a health advice clinic. This month Yohan will be with us at ETC (5th-8th) to share the teaching with Andrew. Angela has 2 more sessions with the Oncology team at the local hospital (5th and 7th) to complete the series on communication. We hope for more opportunities in the New Year.
