

Pastors Patch – 8th June 2025

Dear Friends

During Darrell's sabbatical I will be speaking on 3 occasions. I have decided that I will spend a little time in the book of Ephesians. Over the years I have read a little book based on the letter with the title 'Sit, Walk, Stand' by an author called Watchman Nee. His view is the letter gives teaching that we are invited to sit and experience. It gives instructions how we walk the truths we learn and finally how we stand in the face of the spiritual onslaughts that we experience as Christians from the evil one.

It is book full of wonderful teaching about our status as those whom God has called to be his people. It challenges us to live up to our calling and speaks of the resources that are ours to live in a world where there are so many things that can trip us up.

This Sunday we look at the blessings we have received from the Lord, but it doesn't leave us there. Paul prays that we might know more, that we understand more and that we know the power that is available to us to live for Jesus.

It can be easy to stop still as believers in Jesus, to fail to appreciate all that we have received. Jesus longs for us to know him more, to become familiar the depth of his love for us.

I pray that you will be encouraged as we study a few snapshots of this book together.

Every blessing

Geoff
